Norwest Private Hospital

Come and join our expert team of surgeons, specialist doctors, dedicated nurses and allied health professionals at Norwest Private Hospital.

Norwest Private Hospital is one of the largest private healthcare providers in NSW, providing an extensive range of surgical and medical services to those in The Hills Shire and surrounding suburbs. We offer state of the art equipment in a world class facility, diverse and friendly teams, as well as flexible shifts so you can achieve work/life balance.

With the culture of a small hospital and the scale and strength of a large hospital, Norwest Private Hospital provides an environment for its people like no other.

The Role

To succeed in the role as a Registered Midwife/Lactation Consultant, you will need to bring a genuine interest in caring for women and their family through the various stages of pregnancy, childbirth and postnatal care. You will be an experienced midwife with excellent communication skills and enjoy working in an inclusive and vibrant environment that values and supports our diverse families.

While the Lactation Consultant will focus specifically on the breastfeeding experience for the family, the lactation consultant will be responsible for providing Breast feeding education, guidance and support to staff working within the Postnatal Ward, Birthing Unit and Special Care Nursery.

The Department

Our Women's Health Unit is a 43 bed post/antenatal/gynecology ward with 7 birthing suite rooms. Supporting this service is a 7 bed level 2 Special Care Nursery. An opportunity has arisen for a highly motivated and enthusiastic Registered Midwife/Lactation Consultant to join our team on a full-time/part time basis. We are looking for an expert midwife/LC, who is committed to excellence, has extensive skills in post-partum care as well as a passion for delivery of woman centered care.

Essential qualities:

- Current registration with AHPRA as a Registered Midwife
- Minimum of three years' relevant post registration qualifications
- Demonstrated experience working in the provision of antenatal and post-natal midwifery services.
- Demonstrated knowledge and application of quality improvement initiative using research principles to support evidence-based practice, including development of policies and guidelines.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively in a supportive team.
- Demonstrated ability to advocate for and implement individualised patient centred care;
- Demonstrated professional manner when working with complex situations;
- Advanced communication skills as part of a multi-disciplinary team with a willingness to learn new skills;
- Flexibility to a seven-day roster including night duty;

Desirable qualities:

- IBCLC (lactation) certificate or working towards.
- Experience in Private Health Care

What you'll get in return

- Diverse career pathways
- Professional and personal development
- Help with further study and education
- A supportive work environment
- Challenging, inspiring and rewarding roles
- The opportunity to make a difference

We are sure that you will enjoy working here as much as we do.

Successful candidates will receive a sign on bonus and a bonus on completion of 12 months' employment. Conditions apply
